

National Sunday School Challenge – 08/06/2013

On Saturday 08th June 2013 we gathered with eager anticipated dressed in black and pink for our yearly Sunday School Challenge. We commenced with a devotional service and prayer.

Each local church was represented by the elite scholars chosen by their various Sunday school Superintendents.

The first round required the contestants to be vigilant as they had to watch various clips and answer questions about what they saw.

Round two was based on multiple choice questions.

Round three tested the contestant's hand/eye co-ordination as they had to toss some screwed up paper into a waste basket.

In round four the contestants had to mime or describe words without saying the actual word in one minute.

In round five one contestant from each team was given 30 seconds to remember a number of images that were shown on a screen.

Finally round six was based on general knowledge questions over one minute where a point was deducted if a wrong answer was given.

The event was eagerly contested throughout the evening but the winners were only disclosed during the Sunday school program in our National Convention in July. After holding the trophy for two years the church in Long Lane was toppled by the church in Druids Heath.

Brother Ray Prince who organised the event together with his assistants are to be commended for the excellent way the event was compeered and put together.
